SUBJECT: Release of Army Project 8925 to SHAPE

1. A paper entitled "The Armored Vehicle Industry of the Sino-Soviet Bloc, 1945-1955" is to be published by the Department of the Army as Project 8925. This project was done at the request of the EIC, and the military services and CIA provided a working member of the group. The Military Information Control Committee desires to release the project to SHAPE and its subordinate commands. In order to do this, it is necessary to obtain permission from CIA.

2. As the only CIA representative to have worked on this project, I can say that the project contains no reference to sensitive sources nor any information that is not releasable to foreign nationals.

25X1A9a

This project is a composite work of analysts from CIA, Office of Intelligence, U.S. Air Force, and Office of Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence, U.S. Army. CIA made no written contribution, nor can any page be identified as the work of CIA only.

Lt.Col. Benedict A. Karnosky of the Secretariat, SDMICG, Room 1D762 (Phone 131 Ext 5-4136) advised OCR that G-2 desired to release their project "The Armored Vehicle Industry of the Sino-Soviet Bloc" to SHAPE and requested
CIA's approval of release of its portion of this study.

25X1A9a [REDACTED] of I/WA advised [REDACTED] of ST/PC 25X1A9a that the report was almost entirely a G-2 product and that no ORR or CIA material or sources went into it. The report was written during a conference at which ORR was represented and

25X1A9a which [REDACTED] attended on a consultant basis. [REDACTED] 25X1A9a

did not write any portion of the report. Therefore it was not necessary for ORR or CIA to give its approval of a G-2 report nor its release to SHAPE.

Margaret Tobin of G-2 was advised --by DD/CR that CIA had no official responsibility in this release and that it was not necessary for ORR to give a "release". She was advised to contact Karnosky regarding the matter.
